WORKSHEET

The boy feels deeply hurt by the attitude of his mother and the conductor towards the balloon. He expresses his feelings in a letter addressed to his friend. Draft the likely letter. He wrote the letter but not in the correct format. Can you rewrite in the correct letter format shows in given box.

	Date Place
Dear Ram,
I hope this letter will find you in perfect health. I am fit and fine here. I hope you also fine there in this letter. I am sharing with you my extreme joy in visiting my grandparents home in village. During this holidays i made to the village of my grandparents. My cousins and i went to the fields to enjoy strolling in the greener. We climbing the trees and plucking the fruits. When we swimming in the village pond was another fun and experience. Village was full free from dust and pollution. I feel it bad that i had to return from my grandparents very soon. I would never like to miss them.

I got a new friend here, it's a red balloon. I got it on my way to school. The bus conductor didn't allow me to get in as i was having the balloon with me. I had to walk the whole way to school. The sweeper held the balloon till my classes were over. It was raining and i somehow managed to reach home protecting the balloon from rain. But my mother got really angry seeing the balloon and she spoke angrily to me. She throws out the balloon. But it didn't go away. It's the only friend i have now. It's a naughty balloon I love it very much.

Date:

Place:

How are you? Hope things are going good there. I haven't heard from you a long time and so thought of writing a letter.

Dear Sam,

I wish if you could see my naughty red balloon.
